GENERAL CLAY ON LOVE -The Lexington, Ky., Leader published yesterday a letter from General Cassuis M. Clay, aged eighty-eight, to Senator John O. Hodges, thanking the latter for his indignant protest in the Lexington Observer against the discreditable readment of the illustrious abolitionist by certain newspapers on the occasion of his repent marriage to his fifteen-year-old ward. Senator Hodges's edi-Torials reviewed General Clay's won-derful career, and declared "had be the days of the Roman empire, he would have passed into history as the noblest Roman of them all."

General Clay says: "In marrying a girl and a peasant I but exercised the republic, and to ostal my money a some only to rate my own a the art to the hy a land and nothing more. * * * * he had nothing more. * * * he had nothing more. * * * he had nothing more. * * * he had nothing more and nothing hy had nothing more and he cay! "For about four years I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and swelling of the legs and feet. At times I would faint. I was treated by the best physicians in Savannah, Ga., with no re-lief. I then tried various Springs without benefit. Finally, I tried

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure also his Nerve and Liver Pills. After beginning to take them I felt better! I continued taking them and I am now in better health than for many years. Since my recovery I have gained fifty pounds in weight. I hope this statement may be of value to some poor sufferer."

MONEY LOANED. Local Representatives Wanted.

Our system affords an opportunity to bor row on either personal or real estate security. The plan is superior to Building and Loan Associations. The amount borrowed may be returned in monthly payments without bonus, with interest at 5 per cent, per annua; it affords absolute security to investors, with a reasonable guarantee of an annual dividend of from 8 to 10 per cent.

We desire to source the services of energetic, representative men in every community to act as Local Secretaries. The position will be sufficiently remunerative to amply compensate for services. If you possess the above qualifications, write for particulars. Full information regarding our system of making loans as well as investments and agencies will be furnished by addressing S. ROBERTSON.
